EMBRY BEAZLEY has been quite sick.

MISS SALLIE COOKE spent several days at Hustonville.

MRS. LEE WEBB, of Louisville, is visiting Miss Susie Lasley.

MR. J. C. MCCLARY is at Crab Orchard drinking the water.

MISS MATTIE WALKER, of Garrard, is the guest of Mrs. J. C. Hays.

MISS EMMA HUNN, of the West End, is the guest of Mrs. Cicero Reynolds.

LITTLE LINDA MANIER has joined her brothers at Hon. J. S. Owsley, Sr., The Paris Kentuckian says Mrs. S. C. Trueheart is visiting in Millersburg.

BEN HELM joined his father, the evangelist, at Franklin, Tenn., Tuesday.

MR. WILLIAM MORELAND left yesterday for a prospecting tour of the South.

MISS MARY LEAVELL, of Point Leavell, is the guest of Miss Ethel Claire Traylor.

MISS LUCIA MCAFEE, of Lebanon, came up Wednesday to visit Miss Pearl Burnside.

MRS. C. S. BALLEW came over from Garrard yesterday to visit Mrs. John W. Rout.

MISS BELLE MCGOWAN, of Cincinnati, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. J. R. Alford.

DINK WILKINSON, one of the staunchest citizens of Casey, was here this week.

MISS ALMA LACKEY, of Gallatin, Tenn., arrived yesterday to visit the Misses Owsley.

MRS. M. J. MURPHY and Miss Edie Warren went up to Rock Castle Springs Wednesday.

MR. JESSE M. ALVERSON, the prettiest boy in Stanford, was here Sunday.

—Richmond Photograph.

MISS SUE COZATT and Mrs. R. M. Carter, of Parksville, spent several days with Mrs. Mattie Nevins.

MESSRS. WILLIS T. COULTER and son, John, two of the cleverest men in Casey county, were here Tuesday.

MISS CLARA MERSHON, of Stanford, is the attractive guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris.—Richmond Register.

MR. GEORGE FRANKLIN VAUGHAN, of Ashland, Va., arrived yesterday to visit his uncles, the Walton Brothers.

MR. AND MRS. W. S. WARREN will leave Monday morning for a protracted visit to relatives in Kansas and Missouri.

MR. AND MRS. H. M. BALLOU, of Lancaster, attended the concert given by Miss Ellen Ballou's music class Tuesday evening.

DR. C. A. COX, C. E. Cox and wife, J. S. Reed and wife and R. W. Hunter went up to Ely's Wednesday to spend a few days in fishing and hunting.

LITTLE JOSEPHINE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Sandidge, of the Muldreville section, is recovering from a six weeks' siege of typhoid fever.

MR. AND MRS. J. S. WELLS, of Danville, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their first born—a girl, who made her advent Wednesday.

DR. WILLIAM SHELTON left this morning for Hopkinsville, where he will spend a few days attending the Baptist Convention before going to see his wife near Nashville.

MRS. S. M. WILHITE and handsome sons, Douglas and Aubrey, of Louisville, spent a few days with Mrs. Dr. L. B. Cook, while on a visit to Mrs. S. M. Owens, at McKinney.

MR. M. F. ELKIN went up to Middleboro Wednesday to work up the Maccabee lodge there. He assisted in organizing a lodge of 17 members at Bryantville Monday night.

MR. W. W. PENN, traveling passenger agent for the C. H. & D., was here yesterday. He is a hustler and is making friends for his excellent road. On the 17th of August, he tells us that his road will run an excursion to Niagara Falls.

MRS. F. P. BISHOP called yesterday to tell us that her sister, Miss Kate White, who recently went to New York, is at the point of death of consumption and that her brother, E. A. White, started to her bedside Wednesday night.

DR. J. F. PEYTON, Capt. George H. McKinney, and probably Col. W. F. Sheridan, will leave Sunday for Pensacola, Fla., where they will spend a few days. They will be joined at Montgomery, Ala., by Mr. M. F. Hulet, who still owns his yacht, which they will use to their hearts' content.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

I WILL pay cash for walnut logs. A. C. Sine.

LATEST patterns in wall paper at W. B. McRoberts'.

BUCKEYE Mowers and repairs at Warren & Shanks'.

BUG finish, potato bugs, cabbage worms and rose bugs, at W. B. McRoberts'.

HAVE your eyes tested and properly fitted with glasses at Craig & Hocker's.

THE McKinney Canning Factory will be sold at public auction June 30th. See "ad."

FOR the next 15 days my entire stock will be sold at cost for cash. Mrs. A. A. McKinney.

TO MY CUSTOMERS:—Please come and settle with me before July 1st. Mrs. A. A. McKinney.

WE have just received a lot canned nut coal for cooking purposes to sell at 10 cents a bushel delivered. J. H. Baughman & Co.

HARRIS' Circus drew a pretty large crowd to see the parade yesterday, but those who paid to see the performance were not as numerous as they might have been.

THE second examination of teachers will occur at the College Chapel today, we are asked to say by Supt. Garland Singleton. Circuit court being in session necessitates the move.

THE Casey County Progress, which started up at Liberty in March, is said to have given up the ghost. Breers Cochran and Talbot's newspaper experience was almost as brief as Pat's sojourn in the army.

G. L. PENNY has on exhibition in his show window a model of the cruiser Charleston, now on its way to join Admiral Dewey at Manila. It was made by a sailor who spent 18 months on it and is a perfect reproduction.

TAXES.—The tax books are now ready and the auditor has written me to hurry up the collection of taxes. Please don't postpone but come up at once and get a receipt for your taxes for this year. S. M. Owens, Sheriff.

WHILE returning from Danville the other night the buggy occupied by Mr. and Mrs. R. Robinson was run into by some careless driver and badly broken up. The occupants were considerably jostled, but did not leave their seats.

THERE was a very acceptable fall in the temperature Monday night, since which time living has been more comfortable, but to this hour the promised showers have not come to much extent. They are still promised for Friday, and also warmer weather.

IN HOC.—Constable T. G. Nunnally arrested and placed in jail Tuesday Maria Harris, colored, and her son, Tom Harris, both of McKinney. The mother is charged with petit larceny and the son with causing a separation between Will Huston and wife.

OPENING.—Crab Orchard Springs opens its summer season June 24th, when Manager Gus Hofmann writes us he will be better prepared than ever for a big crowd. The people of this section are especially invited to go and and enjoy themselves at a very low cost for board.

THE Knights of Maccabees Accidental Insurance Co. has, through Record Keeper John B. Mershon, paid to Mr. Joe F. Waters $250 for the disability caused by a rifle wound that gentleman received in February. Mr. W. holds a $5,000 policy which costs him only $1 per month.

THE trustees of the Stanford public school have elected Miss Mamie Lynn as assistant teacher of that school. The selection is a most excellent one, as Miss Lynn is both a good teacher and a charming young lady, but the friends of Miss Annie McKinney, who made such a splendid assistant last year, are surprised that she was turned down.

WHEN the curtain rises promptly at 8 o'clock to-night (Friday) at the Fourth Annual Contest, standing room will be at a premium, as is usual on these occasions. Every thing is in readiness for the button of elocutionary progress to be touched by the chairman, Judge R. G. Williams, to put in motion what will prove to be not only an entertainment of glittering brilliancy, but the most magnificent, interesting and enjoyable ever given in Kentucky. Danks' Orchestra of celebrated musicians will be a fascinating feature. The sale of reserved seats at McRoberts' Drug Store is unprecedented. Beazley, Waters & Menefee, Managers.

THE entertainment given by Mrs. J. S. Hundley in honor of her very handsome and attractive guests, Misses Mary Burton and Juliet Howard, of Lebanon, is described by the 25 couples who attended as an event of great interest and enjoyment. Misses Nannie VanDeveer and Mary Bruce and Messrs. A. S. Price and G. A. McRoberts assisted the young ladies in receiving and then acted most gratifyingly as an entertainment committee. The decorations were pink and white and the sweet pea the predominant flower. Punch, ices and cake were served and much enjoyed. Dancing and other amusements were indulged in and midnight came all too soon. All who met the visitors were charmed with their beauty and easy grace of manners.

SHOO-FLY.—Screen doors, sash and screen wire at Warren & Shanks'.

THE Farmers Bank & Trust Co., of Stanford, will vote on the question of whether the bank shall continue or go on into liquidation, June 27. The excessive burden of taxation is too much for it.

THE recital by Miss Ellen Ballou's class was pronounced by the large audience that attended one of the most creditable entertainments of the kind ever given here. Miss Ballou fully maintained her splendid reputation as a teacher and added further laurels to her brow. She is the most conscientious as well as the most capable of teachers and she impresses upon her pupils the importance of learning everything well and makes them do it. The stage decorations were under the supervision of Mrs. Pamela Brown and that means that it was most artistic. Bunting, flags and other patriotic emblems appeared in graceful profusion and the surroundings added much to the interest of the occasion. The program was given in full in our last, which renders an extended notice of each performance unnecessary, even if we had the space to tell how well each pupil and other performer did. All did excellently and the entire performance was much enjoyed.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Robert Smith was acquitted in one case for selling liquor unlawfully and the jury hung in the other. R. Reynolds, for carrying concealed weapons, was given 10 days and fined $25. The case against Joe Portman, for forgery, went off the docket on peremptory instructions, there being no forgery in the transaction. F. B. Stetson, assault, not guilty. Sylvester Thurmond was acquitted for malicious shooting and wounding. Thirty-two Commonwealth cases were continued and 12 dismissed. W. H. Traylor was fined $20 in four and acquitted in three whisky cases. Casper Apps got off in three and was fined $25 in two cases of the same nature. Robert Turner, same offense, $20. Odie Paul and Irvin Yocum got $20 each for assault. The L. & N. was fined $100 for not having a water closet at its Crab Orchard depot. H. P. Baugh caught it for $20 for disturbing religious worship. In the 16 cases against P. W. Green for selling liquor on Sunday, he was fined in seven $10 each, eight were dismissed and one continued. Ben Ferrill, for assault, was acquitted. W. R. Akin sued Hon. B. B. King for damaging his wheat and got verdict for 10c. The grand jury returned indictments Wednesday against John Haley for petit larceny, Edmond Lillard, malicious shooting, and George Anderson for burglary.

The following gentlemen compose the petit jury: Jos. Phelps, G. W. Spangler, O. J. Crow, George D. Hopper, J. C. McWhorter, W. R. Kelley, Wm. Curtis, T. J. Hill, J. R. Hales, W. A. Beazley, L. H. Pryor, J. M. McRoberts, J. T. Jones, Jesse M. Green, Adam Petry, B. Chancellor, J. S. Owsley, Sr., Thomas Dalton, L. B. Nunnally, D. R. Moore, George S. McKinney, John W. Delaney, D. K. Farris, Robert Mattingly.

The visiting attorneys here during the week have been: Judge G. W. McClure, Mt. Vernon, Judges R. J. Breckinridge, C. R. McDowell, Messrs. Robert Harding and J. W. Rawlings, Danville, John W. Miller, Lancaster, and Fontaine Fox Bobbitt, Crab Orchard.

Some 10 or a dozen of our citizens sought to prevent the city of Stanford from making them pay taxes because some of their property in the city limits is used as farming lands, but in a conformity with a decision of the court of appeals saying such lands are liable to taxation, everyone of them were knocked out.

The grand jury finally adjourned yesterday after only four days session. Only 22 indictments were returned, the fewest in many years. Of this 14 are for violating the liquor laws and the rest for minor offenses except one for murder against John Dickinson, who killed another Negro at Kingsville and skipped. The jury reported the jail in fine condition and the county clerk's office in good shape.

The trial of the damage case of John Bailey against the Danville & Hustonville pike for $2,000 for negligence that caused his wife to get her arm broken was on trial all day yesterday and is still undecided.

MT. VERNON.

The farmers are more cheerful since the recent rains.

The Misses Arthur, of Williamsburg, are guest of Mrs. John B. Fish.

W. B. Myers, of Williamsburg, is expected here in a few days to raise a company of volunteers for the army.

Several of our soldier boys have sent home to friends a sample of "hard tack," making them thankful they are "here and not there."

The speech of W. A. Morrow in the the Langford trial was highly complimentary. The Langfords, who had a hung jury, were released on bail.

Write to Mrs. Rosalind Nesbitt, Mt. Vernon, Ky., for "Just Sixteen," 35c per copy. This charming new song is in waltz time with catchy air and easy accompaniment.

Tush Jones, who was shot by Esley Lackey, has suffered little inconvenience from the wound. The bullet passed through his left side. Mrs. Geo. Griffin has recovered.

Lloyd Maret, the handsome young local editor of the Signal, has returned from a visit to relatives in Boyle Co. Mrs. James Vowels, of Middleboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Welsh.

Mrs. Mattie Kirby will give the Old Maid's Convention here at an early date. Our people well-knowing Mrs. Kirby's ability in this line look forward to the entertainment with pleasure.

We will soon say "hello" to the blue grass region, as Mr. James Maret, the most public-spirited man in the county, has taken hold of the work in earnest here and is aiding the telephone company in every way possible in furthering its plans.

Misses Sallie Cook and Alma Logan Brown are visiting friends in London. Mrs. Schooler, Mr. Jack Adams and daughters, Misses Callie and Sallie, of Garrard county, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Adams. Mr. Mace Miller has gone to Ohio for his health.

Mr. W. Browning, of Livingston, and Miss Bessie Magee, of London, were united in marriage by Rev. Carmichael at the Miller House last Tuesday afternoon. Miss Jude Owens and Messrs. Magee and Meadows accompanied them. The couple are now visiting at Crab Orchard, the bride's former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills, two earnest Christian workers for the Methodist church, have organized a flourishing Sunday school here and hope to build a church in the near future. A protracted meeting will be held at the court-house in which Rev. Mills and other ministers will assist.

Mrs. Alva Thompson and Mollie Lovell visited Mrs. Zula Sparks, of Livingston last week. Miss Mollie Parker will teach the Buckeye school. Miss Sallie Adams is visiting relatives in Garrard. Miss Rhoda White is visiting friends in Crab Orchard. Mr. Elmore Hansel is clerking for Mr. Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, of Williamsburg, visited friends here recently. The W. C. T. U. will meet with Miss Lena Newcomb Saturday afternoon.
